About TF1 Droits Audiovisuels

Founded in 1995, the TF1 Droits Audiovisuels subsidiary acquires and distributes rights in France and internationally.

Its subsidiary, TF1 International (owned 34% by UGC Images) is one of France's main rights sellers worldwide, operating in all the main marketplaces including Los Angeles, Cannes, Berlin, Venice and Toronto.

In France, TF1 Droits Audiovisuels also distributes films in theatres through its 34% stake in UGC Distribution. TF1 Droits Audiovisuels also has a substantial portfolio of audiovisual rights, marketed through the subsidiary's catalogue of films and TV drama as part of second-cycle sales.

About TF1 Films Production

TF1 Films Production co-produces and buys feature films. It acquires broadcasting rights for the TF1 channel as well as co-producer shares, through which it is entitled to a share of the income generated by the films.

Through these investments, TF1 is honouring its commitment to dedicate 3.2% of advertising income to co-producing European films (of which 2.5% for works produced in French).

In 2014, 18 films co-produced by TF1 Films Production were released in cinemas (compared with 19 in 2013), taking a total of 37.7 million tickets (18.4 million in 2013). Nine of the 18 films topped the one million ticket mark, including Qu'est-ce qu'on a fait au Bon Dieu? (12,236,166), Supercondriaque (5,268,599) and Lucy (5,201,019).
