

COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

Boulogne – October 5, 2016

2016 Grands Prix de la Transparence awards TF1 wins the Grand Prix de la Transparence for the third year running

At the 7th annual Grands Prix de la Transparence awards, the TF1 group won the overall Grand Prix de la Transparence, awarded to the best performer across all categories.

Organised by Labrador Company and adjudicated by a Scientific Committee representing users of financial information*, the awards are presented annually to French companies in recognition of the quality and accessibility of their regulated information across all categories of user. This year, 18 new criteria were added relating to corporate social and environmental responsibility and digital accessibility.

The TF1 group's 2015 Registration Document broke new ground by featuring an integrated report for the first time. This report, which forms the first section of the Registration Document, describes how the Group creates value over the short, medium and long term, and its relations with stakeholders.

Gilles Pélisson, TF1 Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, says: "We are delighted to have received the Grand Prix de la Transparence for the third consecutive year. It is a reward for all the efforts put in by our people, and a recognition of the transparency of the information we provide to our stakeholders. Every year, we try to be innovative and to raise our game in key areas such as corporate social responsibility, which is now fully integrated in all our reporting."

* The Scientific Committee comprises representatives from the fund management industry, individual investors, Paris market players, investment clubs, company directors, financial analysts, the Paris bourse, universities, and CSR specialists.
