Men's Handball IHF World Championship

If the French team qualifies for the semi-final of the Men's Handball IHF World Championship, to be held in Qatar from 15 January to 1 February 2015, TF1 is delighted to announce that it will exclusively broadcast the match live on Friday 30 January.

And if France makes it through to the final, TF1 will also provide exclusive free-to-air coverage on Saturday 1 February.

The matches will be commented by Christophe Jammot and Philippe Gardent, the coach of Paris Saint-Germain Handball.

This exceptional programming is part of TF1's editorial strategy based on covering major events with wide audience appeal. It will allow the whole of France to share the passionate interest aroused by the sport and the national squad.
