

HD1 and LE FILM FRANÇAIS LAUNCH THE “FAITES-COURT!” PRIZE

CLOTILDE COURAU SPONSOR OF THE FIRST EDITION

Seeking to foster creation and contribute to the discovery of new talents, HD1 and Le Film Français have created the “Faites-Court!” prize for short films and are pleased to announce that the actress Clotilde Courau is sponsoring the first edition.

“FAITES-COURT!” IN BRIEF

This year's theme is “Woman/Women”.

If the subject inspires you, then get to your storyboard and create a short film of three to six minutes, filmed in HD and royalty-free! You may be the winner of the new prize and have your work broadcast on the HD1 channel.

The directors of the shortlisted films will meet with the members of the jury to present their project and their artistic approach.

Two prizes will be awarded:

The “Faites-Court! HD1 - Le Film Français” jury prize.

The “Faites-Court! WAT - Telecablesatellite Hebdo” public prize voted by web users.

Find out more at www.hd1.tv/faites-court on 20 March when the call for applications opens.

Partners: Oui FM, WAT, Telecablesat, Metronews, Les Ecrans de Paris, La Monnaie de Paris.

SPECIAL EVENT ON SATURDAY 7 MARCH AT 8.25 PM

BR

For the creation of the "Faites-Court!" prize, HD1's magazine show dedicated to the latest film and TV series news will be hosting a special guest, the actress Clotilde Courau, who will give her first interview as sponsor of the prize.
